The perfect coffee house it depends on you if you want to spend time alone or with friends, in both cases you will love it. Service is pretty great, the place is busy so it gets difficult to grab a table at times, but the food and the drinks are worth waiting for. The hazelnut cappuccino is my all time favorite and croissants are mouth watering.

Worst experience, any normal coffee shop is better than this. They are charging extra for everything (e.g. extra espresso, ice cream blend) but what they provide is watery coffee with no proper ice cream and no extra espresso. Highly disappointed and dissatisfied. This was my second time and last time here in third wave coffee roasters. They should train their employees to make proper coffee being in the land of coff...
