Ordered a half chicken, and the meat was tender and I could taste the spices, which is nice to have it. But I think the outside of the chicken, the skin is a bit salty, you can obviously eat the salt taste. I think the chicken skin is just provide some crispy taste. Maybe you can put less salt to skin or adjust the marinating time, or I just bad luck? Will try again next time I have the chance. read more. Ousley: The girls who work there are always pleasant, however. That drive through has to be the tightest in NSW you could barely fit a golf cart through without scratching the wheels. Sort it out guys it's an embarrassment. If you respond with that generic response you use every time, I shall defecate on your god forsaken drive through.
