This was on my list of halal food places to try out when I visited Gold Coast. It is a short walk from Cavill Avenue Tram station. We came here 2 times, first time was for a sit down dinner and second to take away...food. The portions are big and the prices are a bit on the high side. The chicken biryani was so good the first time we had it, that we came back to take away but it was not as delicious the second time.... read more. In nice weather you can even be served in the outdoor area, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What Wyman Williamson doesn't like about Afghani Charcoal Kebab House:

We thought we'd try out an Afghan joint to get the nice aroma of spices and herbs on some chargriled meats. Nope. I ordered the Qabuli Paloa and had plain steamed rice from a rice steamer with some tasteless meats. We also tried the rice...with roasted lamb leg, same story. This place is a joke, very run down and staff uninterested except if their own kind turn up. read more. In the Afghani Charcoal Kebab House from Gold Coast, a lot of fresh vegetables, fish, and meat are used to prepare easy-to-digest, fine Japanese meals, Besides, the inventive blend of different meals with new and sometimes adventurous products is appreciated by the visitors - a beautiful case of Asian Fusion. Furthermore, you can order fresh prepared grill goods, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian menus.
