The title says it all. The family wanted a quick order of gluten free chips for dinner, Innes Boatshed satisfied us. Lovely spot, next time we'll sit in and enjoy the waterside. read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. What User doesn't like about Innes' Boatshed:

We had frequented The Boatshed on numerous occasions previously and generally been satisfied with the quality of the food and service. Not this time though. The only thing went up was the price of the fish and chips; $36 for a rather inadequate 'family pack' that is barely enough for two. The fish was unnecessarily thin and engulfed in a very oily batter that left our stomachs reeling for the remainder of the day. Th... read more. With the comprehensive range of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to Innes' Boatshed becomes even more attractive, and you may look forward to the scrumptious typical seafood cuisine. Also worth mentioning at this place are the menus from the Australian continent, Generally, the dishes are prepared in the shortest time and fresh for you.
