What User likes about Tibet Kitchen:

We had our dinner here and the food was decent, though there are many competing places in this region and it did not stand out among those in the set of dishes we tried. The service was not very prompt as it looked like they had many customers as well as take home orders pouring in at that time of night. Furthermore, did you any get any suggestions from the waiter when we asked about options and what we could try. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather. What User doesn't like about Tibet Kitchen:

Overhyped eatery at McLeodganj. Tried their chicken fried rice with some chicken gravy dish. Didn't seem fresh or well cooked. Had great expectations, however was utterly disappointed.
