The Little Bistro is a very small restaurant in court-to-plate style, which serves French inspired dishes. Almost everything is done in the house and most dishes can be adapted to nutritional requirements. The cook is very careful and knowledgeable and even made the gluten-free sweetness on the cream brûlée itself! I was here a few times and never had a problem, definitely a highlight of the Akaroa dining scene. read more. In pleasant weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area. What b i doesn't like about The Little Bistro:

Had high expectations based on other 5star reviews. The bread entree was yummy, my husband and I both had the beef fillet mains. Not a lot of flavour and the seasonal veges were on the undercooked side but it was a good dish overall. The dessert for $17 was the tiniest lemon meringue tart with a stale pastry base. It said it came with meringue and lemon ice-cream but instead all it has was a dollop of cream which I c... read more.
