I had been wanting to try out their khunafa for a very long but sadly couldn't because the day I visited they were sold out. I had their chicken shawarma plate, which was good and filling along with their king avocado milkshake and muhalabiya for dessert. Overall the place was neat, with decent service and fresh food. read more. With typical Indian spices delicious menus and sides like rice or naan, they cook fresh at Arab Street in Muscat. In addition, the charming desserts of the restaurant shine not only on children's plates or in the eyes of the little guests. For the undecided, the inviting smell of fresh flatbread combined with the scrumptious, syrupy promise of fresh baklava might be the necessary push - the Middle East is undeniably closer than you would assume, Especially fine juices are very popular among the guests.
