What User likes about Allan Grammar: Located in a small outdoor mall strip, Allan Grammar was our chosen spot to begin our date night. Originally we went here with the intention to have dinner and drinks. However, once we arrived we found out they weren't serving dinner there anymore for the time being. They instructed us to go across to Theo's Rooftop Bar for some food (which we did afterwards). We ended up staying for a cocktail which was quite nice.... read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. What Sandra Mcclure doesn't like about Allan Grammar: I'm really disappointed in the change of atmosphere and quality of service at AG. I've been coming to AG for years and my most recent experience really put a damper on my perception of the restaurant. The service was poor, the food was mismatched and inconsistent, and the quality of their dishes was not up to par with what I've experienced from AG in the past. For the price of the food, you expect to be given somethi... read more. Just eating and drinking is too ordinary for you? Then a visit to this sports bar is just right: in addition to large and small snacks and menus you can watch the latest football matches, tennis or Formula 1, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. There are also exquisite dishes typical for Europe, Additionally, they offer you authentic Australian menus with products like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
