What User likes about Ricks Roast Kitchen: They give rather small portions of hot chips. Especially for the price. The fried chicken was very fresh, it wasn't dried out like it had been under the heat lamps for a long time. Also, if you're selling roast pork that is topped with crispy crackling, as much as you charge for the roast pork, you can afford to let people have the crackling on top of what they're getting. I shouldn't have to pay extra for something... read more. The Ricks Roast Kitchen from Hillcrest New Zealand serves dishes that you can find all over Europe.
