Came here with a few mates during the weekend for apparently was one of the 'best Gamjatangs in Sydney!' . I think the flavour of the soup was on par to that of Kogi in Haymarket. However the meat was chunkier and more tender here (with bits of bone marrow here and there). My friend also recommended the dumplings, which I happily contended that it was pan fried to perfection. read more. At Mapo Charcoal Bbq in Feock United Kingdom, tasty, juicy, delicious grill items is freshly prepared on an open flame and served with flavorful sides, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian dishes. Korean meals like Kimchi, Bap and Jjigae, which are traditional, always find their way onto the menu and the tables of the visitors, The inventive fusion of different dishes with fresh and occasionally daring products is highly valued by the customers - a nice example of Asian Fusion.
