On this site, you can find the complete menu of Republic Sandwiches & Salads from Darlinghurst. Currently, there are 17 dishes and drinks available. The restaurant, which was previously known as Kings Lane, has undergone a reincarnation under new ownership. While it has not quite filled the big shoes left behind, it is making progress. The sandwiches are still generous in portion and taste, offering great value for money. The chef, with experience from reputable establishments like Longrain and Phamish, serves up fresh and clean Thai food of good quality. The menu may not be extensive, but it is definitely worth a visit. The restaurant, now known as 'Joe's Table' and run by Joe Kitsana, provides an amazing dining experience. Formerly of Longrain and Phamish, Joe brings his expertise to the small, but popular venue. Guests can expect surprises, like being welcomed by a top Sommelier and enjoying guest appearances by renowned chefs. The menu features delicious dishes like Honey and Lemon Chicken and Steamed Fish Fillet, with Joe's take on a Greek classic dessert. For those looking for a quick bite, the restaurant also offers delicious fast sandwiches with a variety of vegetarian options. One reviewer was particularly impressed by the East Asian cuisine, including a tasty Stir-Fried Silken Tofu and Papaya Salad, capped off with refreshing Coconut Ice Cream. Overall, this cozy spot is recommended for those seeking a delicious assortment of East Asian dishes for dinner.
