We usually get flake, as well as chips and potato scallops/cakes. The chips and scallops are always good, but the fish tends to vary in quality from week to week. The place also varies from empty to full from day to day. Best way to eat there is to call up beforehand and place your order, then pick it up. Seating is very minima... read more. In nice weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What Bettie Labadie doesn't like about Bennetts Road Seafood: Unfortunately did not get an opportunity to try as we were put off by the service asking whether we could change the fish in one of their packs and pay the difference, we were just shut down immediately and said NO. We went up to Stanley Rd fish and chips in Camp Hill and the service was warm and they had no issues with changing the fish in their pack! How hard was that? read more.
