This was a booking for my birthday and we booked the $189 pommeray Sunday brunch, absolutely worth it. Fantastic food, private room, free flowing pommeray champagne, seafood sas fresh and delicious, so any food options it was impressive. Loved it, thank you. read more. You can use the WiFi of the establishment at no extra cost, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What Enos Leffler doesn't like about Feast at Sheraton on the Park:

Far too expensive for a very small and poor selection. Seafood was nice, but too bad if you didn't like seafood.

We have enjoyed going for years but will not be back. read more. For breakfast, a tasty brunch is offered at Feast at Sheraton on the Park in Sydney that you can enjoy as much as you like, and you may look forward to the delicious typical seafood cuisine. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), still relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Also, the drinks menu at this place is exceptional and offers a significant and comprehensive selection of both local and international beers, which are definitely worth a try.
