What User likes about Clever Little Tailor: Nice little quaint and cozy bar. They had 3 beers on tap and the larger tasted great. We sat at the bar one night and cozy lounge area another. Staff were friendly one night and the next night not very sociable. They are open late which is great! I'd stop here for an ale again thats for sure. Rating it as a small cozy wine bar I give it a 4.5 rounded to 5. read more. When the weather conditions is good you can also have something outside. What User doesn't like about Clever Little Tailor:

I must say that Peel Street has changed substantially since I last walked down there. I remember when the only shops on this back alley was a map shop and a comic book shop, but now it is crammed full of little coffee shops and hole in the wall bars. Clever Little Taylor is one of those little bars that seem to have now made Peel Street home, and I have to say that it has certainly changed the character of the place.... read more. Want to spice up your eating and drinking routine? Come to this sports bar and enjoy a variety of large and small snacks and menus while watching live football, tennis or Formula 1 games, because just eating and drinking is too boring!, Furthermore, the drinks menu in this restaurant is impressive and offers a good and extensive variety of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try. At the bar, you can still relax after the meal (or during it) with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Additionally, they offer you typical Australian dishes with products like bush tomatoes and finger limes.
