What User likes about Little Alley: A hole in the wall, cute little cafe, that serves great coffee and amazing food for reasonable prices, all served with a smile. I've been coming here regularly nearly since the beginning, and always leave satisfied. They like to mix things up by tweaking the menu often, introducing "newbies" to the list. Come for breakfast or brunch, but be patient, as they can get busy during peak times. Use their wifi at the back o... read more. What Yee K doesn't like about Little Alley:

The fact that I'm writing this so many months on since my visit proves that I'm still very annoyed with the service we got. I went with my brother to grab an ice latte takeaway at this spot. Granted it was late afternoon and there was only one person in the cafe. He gave us to iced chocolates instead and when we complained about this insisted that we ordered ice chocolates(um we had two people so we were definately... read more.
