We went to Rufus King Seafoods to get some prawns. They were huge king prawns and were so fresh. Half a kilo was great for lunch. We bought some tartare sauce to set it off. read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Rufus King

Seafoods:

It was cheaper to buy Straddie seafood in Capalaba as we saw places advertised lower prices when back on the main land. Very casual customer service. Very over priced for just off the trawler' and compared to Europe the USA it would go out...of business within a month. Buy your seafood on the main land bring it to the island and eat and look at the amazing view in Point Look Out. read more. A visit to Rufus King Seafoods becomes even more rewarding due to the extensive selection of coffee and tea specialties, Additionally, they offer you authentic Australian dishes with products like bush tomatoes and finger limes. Even if you're not so hungry, you can treat yourself to one of the delicious sandwiches, a small salad or another snack, and you can look forward to the fine typical seafood cuisine.
