What User likes about The Curry Grove: The range of curries change regularly as do the condiments served on the side. This is actually Sri Lankan food if I'm not mistaken and the speciality that goes on top of the meals is the coconut sambar (orange shown on picture). I hang out for this place and drive at least 40km to come here when I have time. read more. What User doesn't like about The Curry Grove:

I visited for lunch. Food is all pre-made and they just scoop out what you want from various plastic containers that you can choose from and warm it up. There was a reasonable choice of dishes to choose for lunch. The prices were average. The food was tasty enough but I would have preferred freshly prepared meals. There was no wait staff. You just order from the counter and pay, and they give you the meal when it is... read more.
