I went on a Saturday night. You need to book in advance for the teppanyaki meal. There are probably 16 seats and two sittings - 6 and 8pm. Or you can eat al la carte at other tables. When it is busy, you will be sitting next to other diners. We took three kids 10, 12 and 14. The chef threw an egg for the 14yr to catch - which he did. The chef is a very good aim, and although it feels good to catch the stuff - it's pret... View all feedback. What Watson West doesn't like about Shin Sen Teppanyaki Restaurant:

Very dissapointing experience. The customer service was poor both on the phone and in person, once we arrived we were rushed to order, The entertainment for the chef was non existant, and the food was bland and tasteless, oh and it was not cheap. It was supposed to be a nice night out for my daughters birthday and was a dissapointment from start to finish. Never again View all feedback.
