Called in on a wet midweek night. Large cavernous venue but the welcome was warm. Menu is clear. Chinese or Thai choices. Meats or vegetables with a large choice of sauces. Chose the lemon grass and the flavours were lovely subtle but full of flavour. We were served by the friendly Phobe who is just charming. Obviously lots of locals and repeat business customers, always a good sign. View all feedback. What User doesn't like about May's Restaurant:

We had children with us who were playing in the childrens room, great idea, but, the room was filthy and the walls in the restaurant need painting badly. The room was so dirty that we were reluctant to eat the food in case the kitchen is just as bad. Sadly we wont be back View all feedback.
