A surprisingly pleasant and welcome spot in this precinct which can be difficult at times. It's a very relaxed and open space with a calm decor and comfortable seating and lighting. There's plenty of standard fare on the menu and its quality is reasonable. The service was a bit haphazard but always friendly and relaxed. As others have pointed out the drinks are very fairly priced. but still don't expect too much of a... View all feedback. What User doesn't like about Butterfly Garden:

this place was something under the average. the food seemed loaded with black pfeffer and the meat and the chicken was very chewing. I gave it three stars because the service was good and it seems to be family owned. the hostess was also the waitress and she worked very hard. View all feedback.
