What User likes about Gunpowder: One of the best places in North Goa to feast on South Indian Cuisine. The ambience of Gunpowder itself makes it worth the visit. Set up in a cozy rustic manner with soft lighting. The mango panna cotta should not be skipped. I always planned my meals keeping that in mind. They even have some interesting talks and film screening during peak season time. View all feedback. What User doesn't like about Gunpowder: Average food & ambience. Highly priced. Not worth it. We ordered cocktails starters and main course. Cocktails were average, egg appam was fine, dosai and gunpowder were OK. Samber was bland, it was daal with currypatta. malabari parantha could have been better. And karala mutton was so hard to chew that we have leave the dish and whatever chewed had to be spitted out. The service is good, they didn't charge us for t... View all feedback.
