Like a big Italian kitchen with happy family groups partaking in a good old get-together. Not your spot for a romantic rendezvous for two but well worth a visit if you want to eat and run. Menu choice great. Instant service.

Delicious dining. View all feedback. What User doesn't like about Trattoria Valdarno:

Very average in presentation and flavour, which is surprising given the other reviews. We ate there as part of a private function with shared starting platters and a choice of two mains that did not seem very Italian. Those that had the two meringue desserts were less than impressed but the tiramisu seemed to be we received, The table ran out of water several times, so I don't think I will be going back.
