Telly phone ordered some fish and chips over Easter. Have never been served over the phone by a more friendly person. As you could imagine being Easter when I went to collect the shop was flat out, perhaps with service like this it's just a normal night. The wait was a little longer than the time we had placed our order for, but understandable considering the volume of patrons. The fish is thick tender and lightly bat... View all feedback.

What User doesn't like about Colchester Road Fish and Chip Shop:

we ordered from here as the reviews looked good. very disappointing, chips were super oily and hollow, worst I had for a long time. we ordered 3 crumbs and got 2 broken. not sure how that happened, it was pretty clear at the door lock order. the little people don't like the diligent, so we had to get him out. don't waste your time.
