Food which once was a hallmark of country towns is almost impossible to find In The Land of OZ. This little enterprise ,brings back that special taste experience "in Spades" . One not to be missed when looking for a stopping spot off the the M1and parking presents no problem with a free council carpark nearby/. I highly recommend this one. View all feedback. What User doesn't like about Tumblegum Bakehouse & Cafe: Better than eating in our motel - which offered meals to room, upon payment of surcharge - breakfast very poor choice at $3.50 per item - proper coffee here - along with baked items - I had an egg and bacon roll - quite tasty. Understand that this (situated in Smith St) was small offshoot of main bakery which is said to have a bigger and better range. Still adequate View all feedback.
