What User likes about Studfield Fish and Chips: Having tried several fish and chip shops in the area, this is the one we visit the most. High number of staff means shop runs efficiently, even on the horrendously busy Good Friday! Burgers are particularly good and quality of other food is consistently good. Friendly staff too! View all feedback. What User doesn't like about Studfield Fish and Chips:

We live up the road and tried for the first time. We ordered fried flake, some gyros as well and pickled onions. The flake was nice fresh. The meat on the other hand was terrible. I didn't not let my young son eat it. It smelled and looked weeks old. The pickled onions smelled like bleach not joking and they were so old they were soft all the way through as in nearly rotten. So won't be going back unless it's only fo... View all feedback.
