We had breakfast at this place yesterday and we were very impressed. The food was great, cappacino was excellent and the service very friendly. The owner John seemed to know all his customers by name which probably means they are regulars who know a good...More View all feedback. What User doesn't like about Odd Captain:

went to breakfast when we were just around the corner. We sat immediately and gave menus. When it comes to ordering the male employee (owner)? was very brutal. I don't expect a full conversation, but he started driving away before we finished the conversation. the food itself was good (porridge was delicious, but I ordered peppermint tea and quite sure that is not what I got. The employees were too busy to get their... View all feedback.
