I recently went to this cafe for breakfast with a couple of friends. I live locally so I frequent this lovely cafe from time to time. It's in a great spot, and on a beautiful sunny day, is a wonderful place for a catch up. There aren't a lot of tables so if you leave it too late to go, you may find yourself waiting. The service is decent, some room for improvement but overall not bad. My favourite menu items are the... View all feedback. What User doesn't like about Malabar Beach Cafe:

I ordered the seafood tapas and it was so overcooked that the fish and salt and pepper squid were inedible. My companions ordered brunch selections and these seemed a lot better. Service was sporadic. View all feedback.
