This place earns the honour bestowed on it in the title by being the only Chinese restaurant in Roselands, and in fact until recent years has been the ONLY restaurant in the suburb. The food is decent (not the best I've had, but not the worst either). It's typically daggy inside but seems to have some loyal customers. It could do with some serious jazzing up of the exterior, we lived nearby for about 6 months before... View all feedback.
