For changing offers, please get in touch via phone or use the contact details provided on the website. Located in a cozy corner cafe, the South End offers a variety of breakfast options, cakes, pastries, and good coffee, making it a perfect spot for those walking near Sydney Park. The establishment has a loyal following who appreciate the great meals, friendly staff, and changing special menu. While some have had mixed experiences with the food at times due to undercooked bacon or burnt banana bread, the overall consensus is positive. Diners have praised the stylish presentation of dishes and the attentive service, making it a must-visit for a quiet breakfast or brunch. Despite occasional issues with food quality, the South End remains a popular choice for locals and visitors alike.
