Lewers Cafe offers a picturesque setting right on the river, making it a favorite spot for breakfast or brunch. The food is always delicious, with options like smashed avocado and mouth-watering field mushrooms. The service is attentive and the atmosphere is lovely, especially during the winter when you can sit under gas heaters. The breakfast menu is particularly recommended, with great coffee and refreshing drinks like passionfruit and mint lemonade. The outdoor cafe is family-friendly, with a well-kept garden for children to explore. Overall, Lewers Cafe is known for its consistently great food, friendly staff, and beautiful riverside location, making it a top choice for a meal or coffee stop in the area.
