Some customers were critical of the ambience, noting that it was only suitable for drinking and not dining. Complaints included slow service and subpar food quality. On the other hand, other reviewers found the food to be delicious and the service quick and courteous. They praised the well-behaved staff, great drink prices, and delicious dishes like Chicken Bhuna and Golden Tandoor Chicken. The recent renovation and change in management were highlighted as positive changes, making the place worth a visit. Overall, it seems that while the restaurant may have some drawbacks, it still has its merits and is recommended for those looking for good food and service in a revamped setting.
