Cargill Cafe has been a South Perth staple for the past 30 years, surviving on its loyal customers. While some patrons have found the atmosphere lacking and the coffee subpar, others have raved about the delicious food and welcoming vibe of this family-owned establishment. The grilled snapper with chips and salad, as well as the chilli squid entree, have been particularly praised for their flavors and quality. Customers have also appreciated the fast and friendly service, quirky ambiance, and ample seating both inside and out. Whether you're in the mood for a decadent meal or a fresh vegetarian breakfast, Cargill Cafe seems to have something on the menu for everyone.
