High Park is a restaurant in Mysuru, India. The restaurant offers a unique rotating concept with great ambiance, and the rooftop view is particularly stunning. However, multiple reviewers found that the food quality fell short of expectations. Some dishes, such as Gobi, paneer, French fries, soup, pasta, and roti, were disappointing. Despite this, the buffet does offer some redeeming dishes like near dosa and gulab jamun. The general consensus was that the food lacked flavor and warmth, with an overuse of curry leaves. Although the ice cream dessert was a standout for some, the buffet received mixed reviews overall. However, the affordable pricing and variety of options were highlighted as positives. Overall, the restaurant seems to excel in ambiance and concept, while food quality may vary.
